

The compatibility measurement (A) helps match the correct thumb to your bucket. The proper thumb length is critical to achieving maximum efficiency with the thumb and bucket. Each thumb offered has two pin settings for the thumb length at 90 degrees. Obtaining the compatibility measurement (A) on your machine and bucket will help us find the best thumb for your application. Customers can trim the tines of the thumb to shorten measurement (A) for a finer adjustment.